

International Wall of Friendship

Unveiling the Icelandic Stone

On Saturday 21 April, 2018, Daniel Chan OAM and Brian Chung, Board members of the International Wall of Friendship (IWF) were joined by several other CCAT members at the Unveiling of the Icelandic Stone. The Governor of Tasmania, HE Professor the Honorable Kate Warner AM gave the Official Welcome speech and speeches were also given by Ron Christie, the Mayor of Hobart, IWF Board members, the Icelandic representatives as well as MC Rob Valentine, MLC. This function was the 63rd stone for the Friendship Wall and was attended by some 40 people.

The International Wall of Friendship is very unique in the world and CCAT was intimately involved with the creation of this innovative symbol of friendship between the many diverse communities in Tasmania. The history associated with this International Wall of Friendship has been recorded by Katie Young OAM, a Past President, and can be viewed on the CCAT Website.
